Teresa Beyer, director, has a degree in elementary education, with both an early childhood and a reading endorsement. She has more than twenty years of teaching experience.

Current teachers hold Iowa Teaching Certificates and take early childhood continuing education courses each year.

We do not discriminate on the basis of race, gender, color, or national origin. However, service to students with certain mental and/or physical disabilities will be determined on an individual basis.

Here's what the community is saying about Creation Station:

"I appreciate the love and guidance the teachers have given my preschooler. Creation Station strives to teach with God at the center. It has been heartwarming to watch my child grow and learn academically, Biblically and socially."

"Our five children have learned about our GREAT BIG AWESOME GOD in everything they did. We love Creation Station and are so grateful for it."

"It is such a blessing knowing my son has the opportunity to learn and grow in this environment"

"My daughter loves it so much she wishes she could go everyday!"

"My daughter's enthusiasm for school is so refreshing."

"The fact that the children are taught from a Christian perspective is such a blessing."

"Preschool is the highlight of my child's week."

Serving the community for 21 years.

What will Creation Station Christian Preschool offer my child?

It will offer a secure, loving,
Christian environment where each child can develop

- spiritually
- physically
- socially
- emotionally
- intellectually

through curriculum
rooted in God's Word.

Each child's growth and development will be encouraged in active learning through:

- Bible stories and songs of praise
- learning centers
- introduction to letters and numbers
- development of large/ small motor skills
- sharing and caring time
- art and music activities
- quality children's literature
- reading-readiness emphasis
- math activities
- science exploration and discovery
- community awareness and involvement
- field trips
- cooking experiences
- dramatic play
- outdoor playground plus gym time
- Spanish instruction each week

The children will learn that they are people of worth, precious and unique in God's sight!

The Spanish Immersion preschool class will offer the same skills and similar activities taught by Spanish-speaking teachers.
